

NO PLATFORM FOR EXTREMISM

Article 19: Protection from all forms of violence

Governments must do all they can to ensure that children are protected from all forms of violence, abuse, neglect and mistreatment by their parents or anyone else who looks after them

Responding to speakers promoting messages of hatred and Intolerance

1. Introduction

This "No Platform Policy" aims to ensure Bloomsbury Nursery School & Children's Centre balances the right of freedom of speech against the potential use of its facilities for the promotion of extremist ideological, religious or political beliefs. In this context beliefs are considered to be extremist if they include the expression of racist or fascist views; if they incite hatred based on religious interpretation, ideology or belief; or if they promote discrimination on the grounds of political opinion, age, colour, disability, ethnic or national origin, gender, marital status, race, religion or sexual orientation.

This policy is based on the No Platform Policy of Birmingham City Council, which will be found at:

www.lscbbirmingham.org.uk/index.php/policies-and-procedures-pro

2. Definitions

"Extremism" is defined by the Government in the Prevent Strategy as:

“Vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. We also include in our definition of extremism calls for the death of members of our armed forces, whether in this country or overseas.”

Not every part of this definition has to be satisfied for a particular individual or organisation to be regarded as extremist.”

The Equality Act 2010 prohibits discrimination, harassment or victimisation on the basis of the “protected characteristics”. These are:

- Age;
- Disability;
- Gender reassignment;
- Marriage and civil partnership;
- Pregnancy and maternity;
- Race;
- Religion or belief;
- September 2015
- Sex; and
- Sexual orientation

The Terrorism Act 2000 establishes a list of “proscribed organisations”. These are organisations that the Home Secretary believes are concerned in terrorism. It is an offence to belong to a proscribed organisation or to invite support for a proscribed organisation. This includes arranging, managing or addressing a meeting that is intended to support the activities of a proscribed organisation.

3. Principles

The Principles on which this policy is based are -

- No person may use the facilities of Bloomsbury Nursery School & children’s Centre to express or promote extremist ideological, religious or political views.
- No person may use the facilities of Bloomsbury Nursery School & Childrens Centre to express or promote discriminatory views in relation to the protected characteristics listed in the Equality Act 2010.
- Bloomsbury Nursery School & Children’s Centre will not allow the use of its facilities by any group or organisation that is proscribed by HM Government.

4. Electronic Communication

Bloomsbury Nursery School & Children’s Centre will not allow the use of the school website, IT facilities or information management processes to:

- Promote discriminatory views in relation to the protected characteristics listed in the Equality Act 2010;
- Promote or glorify terrorism; or
- Promote extreme ideological, religious or political beliefs.

The school has a right to exercise control over all activities on its IT facilities, including electronic communications associated with the name of the school and use of school equipment to access external resources. This includes the right to monitor the use of school resources.

5. Written and Printed Communication

Bloomsbury Nursery School & Children's Centre has the right to exercise control over the content of any written or printed material that identifies itself as associated with the school. It will not allow the use of its facilities in the production of such material, or permit the use of its name, or of any identifying marks relating to the school, in such material, if that material appears to:

- Promote discriminatory views in relation to the protected characteristics listed
- in the Equality Act 2010;
- Promote or glorify terrorism; or
- Promote extreme ideological, religious or political beliefs.

6. Use of Buildings, Facilities and Property

In deciding whether to allow any group or organisation to make use of its buildings, facilities and property Bloomsbury Nursery School & children's Centre will take into account the views, policies and objectives of that group or organisation and may refuse on the grounds that these are incompatible with the policies and objectives of the school. In particular, access will be refused if it appears likely that the proposed activity would promote extremist ideological, political or religious beliefs.

7. Accountability

The statutory body of Bloomsbury Nursery School Children's Centre (Governing Body) has ultimate responsibility for this policy. The implementation of the policy is the responsibility of the Head Teacher. Bloomsbury Nursery School Children's Centre will use the No Platform Policy of Birmingham City Council for guidance on conducting research into the background of potential speakers, consulting other schools, other organisations, using search engines, assessing the reliability of information found, identifying risks to community cohesion etc.

8. Reporting Concerns

School staff has a responsibility to act on concerns. Staff will have training on how to recognise a potential issue with the promotion of extremism in school.

At Bloomsbury Nursery School & Children's Centre the staff will inform; Sally Davies, Tamar Cohen, Rachel Wooldridge or Sarah Rutter if they have a concern.

Any staff member who has raised a concern will be given feedback on the action taken. If after reporting a concern and staff feel that no satisfactory action has been taken then they should escalate the concern by informing Hibo Abdallah - Chair of the Governing Body of their concerns. If a concern needs to be escalated further then Bloomsbury Nursery School children's Centre Whistle Blowing Policy is to be used.

9. Training

The school will ensure that school staff and Governors receive appropriate training in the issues raised by this policy in line with our annual Safeguarding training & updates.
